

1988 DAMIEN-DUTTON AWARD

The Damien-Dutton Award for 1988 was presented on 11 September 1988 to Mr. Hermann Kober, one of the co-founders of the German Leprosy Relief Association (GLRA) in 1957 and a member of GLRA's Board ever since.

This award was established in 1953 by the Damien-Dutton Society (founded in 1944 by Mr. Howard E. Crouch) to honor those who have rendered outstanding service to the cause of leprosy.
